SNO-FUN JAMBOREE PLANNED FOR FEB. 5

An approximate 50 mile trip is expected. For sponsor sheets call Julie Daye, Sunday River, and for trail information, etc., call Lee or June Swan at Newry.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO FEATURE FILM "THE COLONIAL NATURALIST"

At the monthly meeting of the Bethel Historical Society to be held Thursday, Feb. 2, in the meeting room of the Moses Mason House at 7:30 p.m., the film "The Colonial Naturalist" will be featured. Requiring four years to produce, the film documents the experience of the English naturalist Mark Catesby and the background for his important work on the natural history of the New World.

In the American colonies, Catesby encounters many American creatures unfamiliar to his native England, among which are opossums, eagles, rattlesnakes and hummingbirds. These and hundreds of others are shown alive in their natural setting as Catesby explores the beautiful countryside with Colonel William Byrd II and other well-known nature enthusiasts. It is perhaps important to note that Catesby was the most significant expositor of American natural beauty before Audubon.

Everyone interested is cordially invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

GOULD OUTING CLUB SERIES PRESENTING FILM TONIGHT AT BINGHAM AUDITORIUM

Those who attended last Thursday evening's presentation of the Gould Outing Club Lecture Series enjoyed a breathtaking trip via colored slides and expert narrative, to the Patagonian Andes near the tip of South America.

Climber Jay Wilson told of his experience in climbing an 11,000 foot peak called Cerro Torre in Argentina during a two month stay in that region with two other climbers. His slides showed the extremes, from snow-covered glaciers on the West coast of South America to the deserts of Eastern Patagonia.

This Thursday evening, January 26, the Lecture series will present a full length feature film, "The Eiger Sanction" starring Clint Eastwood, which besides its tale of espionage and the usual Hollywood sex, thrills, and spills, contains excellent shots of the Swiss Alps and of mountaineering on the mountain called "The Eiger."

The movie will be shown to the general public in Bingham Auditorium at Gould Academy at 7:30 p.m. All are invited and the admission is free.

TELSTAR FACULTY HOLDS WORKSHOP TUESDAY

EDUCATION WORK COUNCIL DISCUSSES COMMUNITY ROLES IN CAREER EDUCATION

On Wednesday, Jan. 18, the Board of Directors of the Bethel Area Community Education Work Council met at the American Legion Hall in Locke Mills. As part of its efforts to look at ways to assist young people in making the move from school to work, the Council discussed the role of the Community in Career Education.

Career Education is not a program. It is an effort aimed at making education, as preparation for work, a major, although not exclusive goal of all who teach and all who learn at all levels of education. Career Education does not ask teachers to add more content to the curriculum, but does ask: "How can the subject you teach be related to work?" and "How can the total resources of the community be brought to bear on helping students learn more?" It is a cooperative effort between education and the community aimed at helping individuals become familiar with the values of a work-oriented society, to integrate these values into their personal value systems, and to implement these values in their lives in such a way that work becomes possible, meaningful and satisfying to each individual.

The Work Council centered its discussion around two questions: Is Career Education a process we feel is worthwhile and something to be worked for? If so, what is the best role for the Community Education Work Council to play? There seemed to be agreement among those present that the Career Education process is a way

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The Board of Selectmen met Monday evening in regular session at the Town Office. The Board reviewed correspondence from S. A. D. #44 about the child immunization problem. Parents of pre schoolers should contact District Nurse Mrs. Suzanne Bissett at 824-2169 if they have any questions.

The Board voted to have the State Department of Audit conduct the Town's audit for 1978. Dedication of the 1977 Annual Report was discussed, however no action was taken.

In other actions, the Board discussed tax anticipation borrowing, discussed the appointment of a new Water District Trustee, signed a Quit Claim Deed for the Bethel Savings Bank, and reviewed the draft warrant for a special Town Meeting regarding the sewer system.

The Manager informed the Board that the Army Corps of Engineers had representatives in Town on Monday to review the ice buildup in the Androscoggin River. It was indicated by these representatives that there was nothing that could be done about the ice to alleviate possible future dangers. As a result of this review, the Town is developing plans to deal with potential flooding problems.

The remainder of the meeting was spent discussing the first draft of the 1978 Annual Budget. The Selectmen continued budget discussions on Wednesday evening, Jan. 25.

Persons interested in serving as a trustee of the Water District are urged to contact the Town Office or any member of the Board of Selectmen. As Richard Harding, who is resigning is a non-user, preference will be given to a non-user in the naming of his replacement.

Selectman Bradley Barker indicated Monday evening that he will not be seeking re-election this year.

Nomination petitions for those interested in running for any of the following posts must be submitted by Monday, Feb. 21, 1978. Two three-year terms for Selectman; two three-year terms for Assessor; and two three-year terms for School Director.

Norman R. Ness, Jr.

help young people learn about, and make an easier move into the world of work. It was felt that there were several different ways that the Work Council could help in the Career Education process. Career Education asks citizens to make themselves available to talk with students about their jobs, about work in general, and about how to be successful in the world of work. Each citizen has a valuable contribution to make. The Council will continue to discuss specific ways which, as a group, we can encourage sharing and learning between young people and the community as a whole.

The Directors also heard reports concerning community Education, the possible use of college students for research activities which would be of benefit to communities in the area, and several items the Executive Director has been working on. The Council has completed its incorporation process and expects to apply to the IRS for Tax-Exempt Status.

The next meeting of the board will be held on Wednesday, March 8, and will combine the February and March meetings previously scheduled. Interested citizens are welcome to attend.

Richard Gould and sons, Jay and Scott, Farmington, were over night guests on Friday of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gibbs.

William "Gene" Bickford, a retired officer of the Maine State Police, announces his candidacy for the post of Oxford County Sheriff. He will seek the nomination of the Republican party for that office.

Another snowstorm over the past week and left several more inches of snow in this area. The banks are quite high where the roads and driveways have been plowed. The State and town crews are pretty busy with snow removal. Some people shovelled off their roofs during the week end. Quite a lot of snow accumulated during the two week end storms. Partly cloudy as of Monday morning. Temperature around 20°. At noon, Monday, temperature 26° and mostly clear and sunny. During the past two weeks when the sun was able to get out, we have had some beautiful sun rises and sunsets casting a rosy glow over the surrounding mountains and valleys.

Saturday afternoon a caravan of fast moving cars, each with a square yellow sign on the car and window went by. Each had a CB antenna and they went by so fast we were unable to see what the sign had on it. Must be good traveling for that pace.

Maybe he will get some good pointers on snow removal from the city snow plows. He sure missed a good storm here. I just bet he doesn't feel bad. A change of scenery will be good for him.

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Collis Morgan, Corres. —

This Saturday, as the light of morning looked into our cabin, it crossed snow, fanned into many shapes. On our porch door it was arranged artistically on the inter-sections that separate the small panes of glass. The winds had been working through the night, with the new fallen snow. They are advertisements of all they touch. When making up-sweeps there are snow banners. Look over the agitated forest and we see the effects upon the trees. There are whirling eddies of white, soaring aloft or smooth deep current, singing around every tree. These winds may be compared to mountain rivers conforming to their channels. They had made many sculptures which I now noticed.

Beyond the driveway lay a white ocean wave, caught just as it was breaking; its top curled under. Between the house and the garage and out back there were numerous three foot mountains. The old stump by the corner of the house was girdled by an arched doorway. But the most interesting to me was a bird's nest on the branch of one of the hemlocks by the porch. It was deep and shaped like the nest of an oriole. All that it lacked were the eggs and the lovely color of the bird. I first discovered it on Wednesday, unfinished, but today it was complete and perfect and wholly of snow.

At one o'clock I took out my snowshoes. As I strapped them on, I knew that I wouldn't go far because of the depth of the snow. Up the Bulldozer Road it had piled and hurried away in places leaving hollows between the drifts which were so hard to travel.

On the hemlocks flakes clung to their deep green boughs. Every flake intricately bunched, ornamented them. As I looked from one to another, sampling their beauty, the wind began to whistle. The delicate staves began to shatter and were whirled along the ground. But more were in the making and were gathering on my coat.

The muffled quiet that comes with the snow was broken only by snowmobiles speeding down the pond. I traveled part way to the farm fields but found it too hard for me to do more.

The forest on both sides and the swirling snow shut out much of the light.

Faint creakings told me of branches rubbing together.

All up the hills at my left the surface was pierced by many

I kept to my path coming back which made the going easier until I was at home again.

Removing my snowshoes I then went down the road to see the huge icicles on the ledges. Because of the rains earlier, they seemed larger than most years.

A strong mountain breeze hit my face as I again turned toward home. There was no view of the surrounding country because of the thick swirl of snowflakes and the clouds hovering above.

INDEPENDENT STUDY — Amy Wright of Sunday River, a sophomore at Colby College in Waterville, is spending the month of January working at the office of the Bethel Citizen. The project is a part of Colby's January Program of Independent Study, a four-week period between semesters when students are able to pursue a particular interest, either through research or actual experience. The printing office provides an opportunity to learn journalism, proofreading, and the production of a weekly newspaper, as well as something about the bookkeeping involved in a small business.

All outstanding bills were paid and donations were made to the Heart Fund in memory of Danny Forbes and to the Child Welfare Foundation in memory of Joyce Quinney. It was noted that the McCall's Magazine is being received at the women's ward at search or actual experience. The printing office provides an opportunity to learn journalism, proofreading, and the production of a weekly newspaper, as well as something about the bookkeeping involved in a small business.

Den 1, CUB SCOUTS
Den 1 met at Mrs. Hastings. We did Achievement 12, ate a snack and rode a snowmobile and took turns jumping off a roof into the snow. It was fun!—Scott Newton, Denner.

Upton

— Mrs. Arline Bernier, Corres. —
Diane Barnes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Barnes of Hiram and Upton, was crowned Apple Queen at the state meeting of the Pomological Society of Maine, during the agricultural show at Augusta.

Diane, a senior at Sacopee Valley High and president of the student council, is enrolled at U. of M. at Orono as a pre-med. She was sponsored as a contestant for the honor by Pomona Grange #21 of Cumberland and Oxford County.

The school bus returned Friday with the bus load of students as 75% of the teachers were absent because of respiratory illness.

The last two snowstorms had less wind so the snow has piled up on roofs.

It is reported to be difficult going with snow machines on the lake because of the deep snow.

Several have been having trouble with their telephones lately. Sometimes the phones do not work at all or make a buzzing noise instead of ring, or will not dial out of town.

Albert Blais has been laid off from his job in Lewiston as the building material he was working with is unsatisfactory and needed adjusting.

CARD OF THANKS
We would like to thank the Bethel Fire Department and Bob Davis for their quick response and excellent job they did in putting out the fire that we had on Jan. 16. Thank you ever so much. Stan and Jackie Roberts and family

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank all of our relatives, friends and neighbors for the many cards and other kindnesses during our hospitalization. We also thank the Rescue Unit, Andover Fire Dept. for their prompt and efficient service. To Dr. Wadhera and Dr. Aucoin our thanks.

Northwest Bethel

— Clarice Gibson, Corres. —
Another week with a no school day, Wednesday. Ira and Robert Saunders did quite a lot of shoveling and in the afternoon Ira had to work at Sunday River and Robert and Jody Shimamura went up skiing. Saturday and Friday we had more snow which left quite a few inches. Sunday morning Ira had to get up to the skiway by seven, so I took him up. Wish that I knew. We went over ten miles and didn't meet another car or see another person. The landscape was beautiful in its dress of white and the trees also had their dress. The green of the evergreens was outstanding in their white (no wonder so many people try to get this effect on their Christmas trees.) Also the other trees were splendid in their new dress. The sun was just coming up over the mountains with its reddish hues touched with grays. Looking in another direction one could see one or two lone stars. The whole atmosphere was one of a new awakening.

Sunday afternoon Frank had a service call in Locke Mills so I rode over as far as our son's and wife, Frank III. At noontime Ira was still at Sunday River and Pat and Everett Saunders had taken their boys, Richard and Robert up skiing so Pat invited us for dinner. If one only could realize when the children are little what a short time before they are on their own or want to be independent.

Monday, Barbara MacDougall and I went to Rumford on business.

Tuesday I picked up my aunt Sara Andrews in Albany and we went down to visit another one of my aunt's, Bertha Kimball. From there we went to my folks,

Mr. and Mrs. George Allen in Norway and had dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smith and Shawn from Fryeburg, were dinner guests Sunday of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith and family.

Kristy Angevine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Angevine went to a birthday party Sunday for Susan Gould, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Gould.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lapham had as callers last week, Mr. and Mrs. William Helm from Andover and Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Onofrio from Bethel.

The Steve Anderson's are sick with the flu.

Mrs. Larry Thurston called up Gerry, Monday, and said that none of her children would be able to catch the bus as their family all had colds, flu, or whatever.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hannon and children, Amy and Mary Beth, took Timmy Angevine to McDonald's and bowling in Rumford Sunday. This was in celebration of Mary Beth's 6th birthday.

The kindergarten children on our road are now going to afternoon sessions at school instead of mornings.

Monday, Jan. 23, Ernest Adgevine and grandson, Ricky, went to a Briggs and Stratton service meeting at Happy Jack's in Lewiston.

BROWNIE INVESTITURE HELD TUESDAY EVENING

Tuesday, Jan. 24, was a special night in the lives of about 50 girls in the Bethel area as they participated in the Brownie Investiture held at the Bethel Savings Bank.

The meeting was opened by Troop 597 of West Bethel with Pam Morgan, Eileen Alyward, Louise Snyder, and Mary Hutchinson doing the flag ceremony and Brownie Promise.

To set the stage for the Investiture a skit was performed by a Brownie. The cast included as Grandmother, Missy Brown; Tailor, Debbie Wheeler; Wise Old Owl, Jeannine Conant, and the elves were Amy Flynn and Karen Gould.

A special candlelight ceremony followed with these girls receiving their Brownie Girl Scout Pins and World Association Pins. Troop 633 invested Stacey Sumner, Rachel Rayne, Melissa Palmer, Stacey
Brown, April Bennett and Anita Kimball. Troop 669 invested Lori Estabrook, Valerie Morton and Alexandra Morton. Troop 155 invested Shelly Rice, Sherri Sprague, Meghan McGuire, Joy Clymer,
Dawn Day, Julie Denison, Linda
Mason, and Sheri Doxon. Troop
331 invested Maria Bowles, Lisa
Cox, Sara Chapman, Michelle Johnson, and Kelly Jordan. After each troop was invested the new girls repeated their Brownie Promise.
Troop 597 held their Investiture earlier.

Girls absent who will be invested at their own troop meetings were Patricia Giongh, Lee Ann Patten, Beth Douglas, Andrea Howe, and Margaret Thornton.

Following this the leaders had prepared special honors to those

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Sweet Freaks!

Are you a sweet freak? Estimations have it that the average American consumes over 100 pounds of sugar each year.

Most people are not aware of the many forms that sugar can come into the body. It disguises itself in canned and frozen vegetables, ketchup, spaghetti sauce, gelatin desserts, fruit drinks, cold and hot cereals and soft drinks. In one bottle of cola there is nine teaspoons of sugar. Check your labels for self-defense.

Dr. Carlton Fredericks, noted Nutritionist, states, "The American intake of soda, pop is so great the steel used for bottle caps outweighs the steel used for automobile bodies in any given year."

The sugar industry tries to tell us our national sweet tooth is justifiable. Propaganda tells us that sugar is an "energy food".
There is no nutritional value to sugar. Check the nutrients: vitamins, minerals, proteins. They all add up to a grand total of 0. But myths like the following do work.
Wow! I've got to finish this work, better eat a candy bar!" Quick energy!

Probably the best thing to do is to re-educate our taste buds. Learn to appreciate foods in their natural state. Cereals without sugar, fresh rather than canned fruits in heavy syrup, a cold glass of apple cider instead of a glass of fresh fruit juice in place of a sugary labeled fruit flavored drink.

Sugar intake affects how we feel and how we function. Have you ever noticed how the kids act the day after Halloween? Can you guess the reason for their being so hyper?

Many diseases and syndromes have been linked with sugar consumption and its adverse effect on our health. Recently the public has been made aware by such publications as "Sugar Blues" by William Duffy and the following by Beatrice Trumm Hunter: "Consumer Beware," "The Natural Food Primer" and "Mirage of Safety."

"Hypoglycemia is one of the nation's newest epidemics," says Dr. Donald Land, Director of Nutrition Information Systems, of Durham, N. H. This disease manifests itself with symptoms of sugar craving, dizziness, headaches, faintness and even insomnia.

These symptoms, as well as those indicating a decline in mental and emotional health can all result from excess sugar consumption.

This information as well as much more listed in the above mention references, can be an incentive for us all to consider what we eat and its relationship to our health and well being. If we can, we should try and keep in mind
...That as Life Depended on it... It Does!!!

NEW BROWNIES

At investiture ceremonies held Tuesday evening, Jan. 24, at the Bethel Savings Bank, the above group received their pins and were officially welcomed into the Bethel Brownies. Shown are, left to right, front row, Stacey Brown, Mary Beth Hutchinson, Anita Kimball, Sarah

Chapman, April Bennett, Lisa Cox, Kelly Jordan, Rachel Rayne, Meghan McGuire; 3rd row, Sheri Doxon, Valerie Morton, Sherri Sprague, Shelly Rice, Xandy Morton, Michele Johnson, Maria Bowers, Cathy Tyler, Linda Mason and Stacey Sumner. Not shown, but receiving her pins was Dawn Daye.

KEEP SAFE DISTANCE BACK

—AVOID REAR-END COLLISIONS

The Maine State Police advises following other vehicles at a safe distance is one important means of avoiding rear-end collisions.

"On snow-packed or ice-glazed roads, the wisdom of this rule is underscored by the fact that the distance needed for stopping may be from three to 12 times that required on dry pavement," said Colonel Allan H. Weeks, Chief of the Maine State Police.

For too many motorists maintain too short an interval between following vehicles. As long as the leading vehicle maintains his pace, there is usually no trouble. However, if the motorist ahead finds it necessary to brake quickly, the driver following may not be able to reduce speed sufficiently to avoid a rear-end collision, said
Col. Weeks.

During the winter months, the speeds used on dry summertime pavement are too fast for winter roads — even when a vehicle's brakes and tires are in "A-O-K" condition, and the driver utilizes snow tires or tire chains, the Maine State Police Chief said.

Auto Service Tips

The do-it-yourself
auto mechanic should never rely on a bumper jack to support a vehicle while doing wheel or undercarriage work.
If you plan to work
beneath the car,
support it solidly with jack stands or wheel ramps.

JAY FINISHES STRONG TO OUTPOINT TELSTAR, 78-68

Dave Fournier burned the nets with 89 points, an MVC season-high sparking host Jay to a 78-68 Mountain Division hoop win Tuesday evening over stubborn Telstar. The win lifts the Tigers to an 8-4 record while the Rebels fall to 2-10.

Fournier score 12 of those points in the fourth quarter, as Jay was forced to rally to pull the game out.

The Rebels steadily battled back from a 36-31 halftime deficit, taking a 48-45 lead late in the third period as they put on an effective press. It was 50-50 at the end of the frame.

But the press had a reverse effect in the fourth quarter, as Fournier and his teammates broke it and turned in several easy hoops.

Bob Deane and Steve Doiron followed Fournier with 13 points apiece. Five Telstar players scored in double figures, Pete Richard leading the way with 19 points, followed by Mark Kendall and Berry with 12 apiece, Bob Seames with 11 and Dan Cummings with 10.

Jay romped in the junior varsity contest, 74-34. The Rebels invade Livermore Falls on Friday.

WALKING WITH JESUS CHRIST
Last week instead of seeing a full moon we experienced another snow storm that brought more snow enthusiasts to join with others in winter sports. The skiers especially were about to burst with enthusiasm as they mounted up as with "wings of eagles" (Isaiah 40:31) flying along the ski slopes seemingly throwing their cares to the wind, their eyes open to the wondrous beauty of our snow swept mountains.

This visual grandeur of God's creation is not enjoyed by some, being partially or fully sightless. Yet, there are among these, not gifted with sight, those that do have a rich experience, under God, that many persons do not understand.

For example: a child of God can have a joy under any and all circumstances; that which the Bible calls "beyond our understanding" - hence: a sightless person can have his "eyes opened" in a spiritual sense, to enjoy the riches in glory one can have in Christ Jesus.

The Bible tells us in Ephesians 1:17, 18: "That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of Glory, may give unto you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him." The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of His calling, and (what) the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints."

There we have it! Matthew 13:16, 17 says: "But blessed are your eyes for they see: and your ears, for they hear." "For verily I say unto you, that many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which you see, and have not seen them."

First Corinthians 2:14 - "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him."

Now we know that a sightless person as well as the sighted can receive the things of God "if" he is willing - because God is willing and able to meet us anywhere at anytime.

Acts 26, 18: "Asking Him to open our 'eyes' and turn from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that we may receive forgiveness of sins, and an inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in Christ."

Then as we live a life "in Christ" we will experience: "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance, against such there is no law." Galatians 5: 22, 23.

And it's all free, paid for: By the blood of Christ, who suffered, hanging on a tree, died, arose on the third day - that we might live.

Thank You Jesus.

- From The Oxford Democrat -

Variety is said to make life pleasant, and surely the weather gives us enough of it. First, a week of fine wheeling, then a playful snow shower and the sleigh bells resume their jingle.

'Tis an ill wind that blows no one any good, and a foot of snow would surely be a big thing for wood haulers and lumbermen. We learn the Bethel Steam Mill company have been obliged to take their teams from the woods on Riley Plantation, there not being snow enough to haul their timber.

On Dead Diamond River, the company is doing a good business lumbering. The snow is said to be some over two feet deep in the woods. Some over 3,000,000 feet of timber have already been landed on the lake.

Eben Richardson & Son have received an order for 2,000,000 spool strips to be sent to England. They will also work up some 800 cords of birch and poplar, besides the manufacture of headings, shovel handles, shingles, etc.

The Congregationalist society have made a great improvement in their church, having recently put in two new and improved furnaces and flock glass windows.

John Pike & Co. have moved from the Knight store to the Kimball store in the block, and have put in a good assortment of goods, which they are selling cheap for cash. Give them a call.

Street lamps are getting to be quite numerous on our streets, and are very convenient to the traveler on a dark night.

Temperance meeting in the Congregational vestry last Sabbath was well attended. S. T. Bartlett, Esq., delivered a good lecture.

Three car loads of potatoes were sent from our station last Monday

GILEAD WOMEN'S CLUB

MET JAN. 17

The Gilead Women's Club met on Tuesday, Jan. 17 at the home of Carol Taylor. The secretary and treasurer's reports were read, thank you notes read, also the ladies had a nice card and note from one of their former members, Annette Carver. She sent some lovely snapshots of her beautiful new home in Florida but misses Gilead and friends and family from around the area. Annette and Raymond are wished much happiness and they are missed by friends here also.

Discussion was held on the skating rink problem and it was suggested that there be an Easter egg hunt for Gilead children this year. Also a short discussion was held on taking the children to a different place this spring, since they have gone to the Shrine Circus for the past two years. The ladies will discuss both these ideas at the next meeting. The pens have arrived that the Women's Club will be selling to raise some money. Anyone not present at the last meeting may pick up their pens from Carol anytime.

The Extension part of the meeting was then held with Carol Taylor as the leader. She showed how to make two of the many homemade mixes you can prepare ahead for later use and store in airtight containers.

The second part of the meeting was on Dollar Wine Menus. The ladies sampled two supper dishes which were both inexpensive to make, and were all given recipes for the supper dishes and four fact sheets on preparing the mixes.

The next Extension meeting will be held at Lyn Chapman's home. Lyn will be the leader. The subject will be "Cake Decorating." The date of the meeting is Feb. 28, 1978, at 7:30 p. m. Any new ladies in town feel free to come to any of the meetings and see what the Gilead Women's Club is and if you'd like to join.

Sunday River

Mrs. R. M. Fleet, Corres.

Snow and more snow. You have to stand up and stretch your neck to see out some of the windows.

The road crews sure have been busy as well as neighbors. Driveways are usable after about 20 inches of filling.

Jeanne Fleet could not get the mail to Upton one day, also Sunday River did not get all the way up.

No school for a couple of days either.

Alva Morrison is having a fight with the flu or whatever it's called. He was out Thursday so seemed better.

Scott Dennis returned to Florida Institute of Technology after spending three weeks at home. He made the Dean's List for the first semester.

Debbie Dennis returned to St. Joseph's College in North Windham after spending the week end at home. She will receive her nursing cap Jan. 28. After that she will begin working in the Portland hospitals along with her studies.

Bonnie Dennis spent Saturday in Rumford visiting the Lutick family.

Mark Wight had an accident at the skiway. A battery blew up in his face. He is doing well but has blurred vision in one eye.

Mark Wight and Mark Lutick were Friday night supper guests of the Jack Dennis family.

Russell Yates went to Rumford Monday for a check up.

Recent callers at Eva Yates were Arden Andrews, West Paris; Mrs. Alvin Yates and Misty of North Paris.

Sun shining for the second morning in a row.

Would you like to become an E. M. T.? If so please contact Arlene Greenleaf at 824-2744. With enough students maybe it could be taught at Telstar, again.

The E. M. T. course is for 81 hours, two nights a week. It consists of going into emergency care in greater detail than the Advanced First Aid Course.

I hear two of our attendants were caught in a real bad spot last week with all that snow and no plow. They were on call at the time. Luckily no calls came as there was no way for them to get to town. I hear they blew their way out with a snowblower. Now, thanks to another attendant they are able to get out as he now plows the road once plowed by the State.

Safety Tip of the Week

First Aid for Nose Bleed—Keep the victim quiet in a sitting position, leaning forward. Apply pressure at the bleeding site (by pressing bleeding nostril toward the middle). Apply cold compresses to nose and face. If this doesn't stop the bleeding pack nose with gauze (not cotton). Leave a part of the gauze hanging out so it can be removed. — If bleeding doesn't stop see a doctor.

Mrs. Marta Clement, a teacher in the fourth grade at West Paris, has reported that her school is collecting labels from Campbell Soup and Franco-American cans. They are trying to get some play ground equipment for their pupils. The labels may be left with West Paris General Store, Dougherty's Market, the Town Library, or any of the children that go to school at West Paris from kindergarten to the sixth grade or at Mrs. Clements' home at South Woodstock. Please help the youngsters out and save your wrappers for them as soon as possible.

Franklin Grange #124 met in their hall Jan. 16 for a 1978 Birthday Party for all who were present.

The business meeting was carried out by the Master, Richard Felt. The legislative report on taxes, and other points of interest affecting our town were discussed.

Some time was taken discussing the need of insurance on the building because of vandalism as the hall window was smashed again so the sash and panes had to be replaced. What is this world coming to? Are the children being brought up today? The world isn't getting any better. I wish the parents would lean on their children's collar a little all through their childhood and know where their children are and what they are doing. These things need correcting each time they occur. You can't be indifferent and kick them out in the street. Love them and be with them all the way but keep one step ahead and know how they are conducting themselves in public at all times. If correction is needed tend to it then. Maybe you won't be ashamed of your children then.

PUBLIC NOTICE

TOWN OF GREENWOOD
A public hearing will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 31, 1978, from 7-8 p. m. at the Town Hall, Locke Mills, in order for citizens within the Town of Greenwood to comment on the possible uses of Federal Revenue Sharing Funds and Anti-Recession Funds.

The Selectmen have suggested the Revenue Sharing funds be used for highway equipment and the Anti-Recession Funds be used for wages for Town employees.

and Mrs. George Putnam and six from Round Mountain Grange who were on a mystery ride and dropped in to visit.

The following program was carried out: Songs, "The More We Get Together," and "Happy Birthday" were sung. The members had a Happy Birthday banner with daisies attached planned on their lapels and a gift of pens with dolls head on them, during the evening.

An original birthday poem was read to find how many birthdays in each month and the one birthday nearest Jan. 16 received another gift. That went to Ethel MacKenzie (Feb. 3). There were none in January and April present. The month of March had the most (five members). The horoscopes for Monday were read by Lettie Brooks. Miriam McAllister read old laws still on the books in various states like: it's against the law to carry an ice cream cone in your pocket; it's unlawful to take a bite of another's hamburger, etc. Jokes were read by some members. Richard Felt, Charlotte Cole and Carl Brooks played several numbers while the rest were making up words that if spelled backwards they would come out the same, like to. Frank Judkins, Lecturer of Round Mountain Grange, won that contest.

An apple relay with five on a side came out a tie.

Naming words in planning a feast was carried out. None of the words could have a P in them. None could be repeated. Kay Billings was the one who won this contest. An original thought was read by the Lecturer to close the program.

After the meeting was duly closed, refreshments of ice cream, cake, coffee, cookies and other goodies were served to complete the celebration for the 1978 birthday.

The next meeting will be Feb. 20 when Americanism will be the feature of the meeting.

ALIEN ADDRESS FORMS

DUE BEFORE JAN. 31

A. A. Poulin Jr., District Director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service today urged all aliens who have not yet filled out alien address report forms, to do so before January 31, at the nearest Immigration and Naturalization Service office or local Post office.

The Immigration official pointed out that the law requires all non-citizens, except persons in diplomatic status and foreign representatives, such as the United Nations, to report their addresses to the Government each January.

Mr. Poulin added: "The parent or legal guardian of an alien child under 14 years of age must fill out the address report form for such a child in order to comply with the law."

He declared: "We have tried to make it as convenient as possible for non-citizens to meet the address requirements, and in view of serious penalties for willful violation, all persons subject to the address report law are urged to fulfill this obligation before the end of January."

Mr. Poulin advised: "It is easy for an alien to meet this requirement. He just goes to the nearest Immigration and Naturalization Service office or Post Office, fills out the address report form, and returns it to the clerk. Any non-citizen who is ill may send a friend or relative to obtain the card for him, place a stamp thereon and mail it after it has been completed by the alien."

The Immigration official said that 18,000 aliens in Maine already have filled out address reports. He estimated that more than 21,000 such reports will be submitted before January 31, 1978.

At this time, all aliens in the United States as well as any prospective employer of an alien who is in the United States, are also placed on notice that the issuance of a Social Security account card to an alien is not legal permission from the government for the alien to be employed in the United States. As a general rule, only those aliens who have been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence (lawfully resident immigrants) may work in the United States.

Under certain emergency conditions aliens who have been admitted for a temporary stay in the United States (non-immigrants), and who have been granted specific authorization in writing from the Immigration and Naturalization Service, may work in the United States.

Any other alien found working in the United States in violation of law is subject to penalties established by the Immigration and Nationality Act, including enforced departure from the United States.

In view of the concern expressed by national and state leaders on the need to provide more job opportunities for the unemployed, including returning veterans, any prospective employer having questions concerning the legal right of aliens to accept employment should contact the nearest office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, U. S. Department of Justice, Poulin said.

Don't settle for slower savings growth!

If your bank is playing "hard to get" when it comes to paying you the maximum rates on long-term savings, then come to Casco.

You won't have to settle for slower savings growth (or less income), because you'll get the highest legal interest Casco is allowed to pay you.

With Casco's Savings Manager, that can be a big 7.5% if you deposit $1,000 or more for six years.

Federal banking laws impose a substantial interest penalty for withdrawing early, but Casco gives you a good reason for sticking with it and letting your interest build up during the year. When you do, your actual yield increases to 7.79% because all Savings Manager interest is compounded daily on the basis of a 360-day year and paid monthly.

If you allow your interest to compound in your account, in just six years, your $4,000 becomes $1,568.

If that's the kind of savings growth you're looking for, stop in at any Casco office. We'll explain all the advantages that only a Savings Manager account offers you.

STATE OF MAINE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Karen L. Brown

January 21, 1978

A bill to limit the fuel adjustment charge on all electric bills to the actual cost of the fuel itself is being considered by the legislature. Many consumers have criticized the current charge which appears on electricity bills because it includes all utility costs relating to cost of generation of electricity. Thus, it includes the basic cost of all oil, the cost of transporting it from ships to the generating station, the cost of storing it, the cost of special additives to make it burn cleaner and the special tax used to pay for cleaning up oil spills. If all these costs were removed from the fuel adjustment charge, consumers would not be exempted from paying for these items, they would simply be included in the basic monthly costs, where they were prior to 1975 when the Legislature changed the law. An amendment is expected to this bill which would prohibit any automatic pass through of higher fuel costs, which the utilities are now permitted to add on without prior approval of the Public Utilities Commission.

A proposal to increase the income limits for eligibility under the Elderly Householders Tax and Rent Refund Act, is being considered this week. The Elderly Householders Tax and Rent Refund Act, passed in 1973, provides financial relief to elderly persons whose rent or property tax is in excess of 10 percent of their annual income. Under the current law the maximum income to be eligible for such relief is $3,000. This measure would increase the number of persons eligible for the tax and rent relief by raising the income limits to $5,000 for single individuals and $6,000 for couples.

I have received several calls from around the district concerning Small Business Administration loans or aid from the 1974 Disaster Relief Act to cover damage from the Jan. 9 storm. Gov. Longley asked President Carter on January 19 to declare Maine a disaster area because of damage in excess of $18 million. Oxford county received an excess of $572,000 damage from that storm alone. If the President feels that the damage is in excess of what local and state government can alleviate, then we will be eligible to receive Federal assistance.

Another reminder, the church's monthly supper will be held Jan. 28 at the Christian Education Building.

Many college students returned to classes after mid-year holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. John Percival were in Portland Monday, Jan. 23, on business.

Not much for news this week. This correspondent like so many others in town has been laid low by the flu. Plus trying to get porch, garage, and shed roofs shoveled besides the pathways I guess everyone was too busy to think of news.

ANDOVER ALUMNI OFFICERS MET JANUARY 18

Three Andover Alumni officers met on Jan. 18 at the home of corresponding secretary, Roberta Learned. President Leon Akers and secretary Violet Swain were present. Vice president John Percival and treasurer Darlene Hall were unable to attend.

Plans were discussed for the June 3 Alumni Banquet and Ball at the Town Hall. 1978 is the 50th anniversary of the organization of the alumni association. Special invitations will be sent to 95 alumni who have been out of high school 50 to 75 years. 1978 Andover Telstar graduates will be honored guests at the banquet. Their parents may attend the banquet but no complimentary tickets will be issued.

Cards will not be sent to alumni living in town due to a vote in 1965. Watch for news articles, concerning the banquet and ball, in future editions of this paper.

The first alumni officers in 1929 were Stephen Abbott, 1911 (deceased); vice president, Doris Ripley, 1921; secretary, Ivy Thurston, 1918; and treasurer, E. Faye Dresser, 1922. 100 attended this first alumni banquet of Andover High School. Prin. C. Volney Sweatt suggested organizing an alumni association and making the alumni banquet an annual affair "filling a long felt need for an occasion on which graduates of A. H. S. might meet each year and recall their own school days".

At this meeting Ethel McAllister, 1899, attended, representing the first graduating class from Andover High School. Emma Howe represented the old high school before Andover High School was organized.

The present officers hope that many of the alumni from 1903 to 1977 will attend this special banquet and ball on June 3.

Andover joined S. A. D. #44 in 1965 but still holds A. H. S. alumni meetings, inviting Andover Telstar graduates to join the organization.

From Augusta

by R. L. Bergeron

For a legislative session that started off with a bang, it didn't take long for it to get bogged down and crawl at a snail's pace in the historic manner.

At the start committees were assigned bills and public hearings were started. Lawmakers and observers alike thought the sign was good and the session would be a short one.

Now, many committees have held their hearings but haven't reported out to the full legislature their recommendations. Leadership is concerned, and they will be getting strict about next several weeks and if need be will order committees to report out those bills.

With under 200 measures before this session, most felt March 15 would be about the time lawmakers would go home. There are few controversial measures proposed. The governor's school funding measure, which has received a lot of publicity due to the recent repeal of the uniform property tax is not considered to be that controversial. Most here under the dome feel it is a realistic approach and although they may not agree with it in full, it's expected to have few if any changes made to it.

Looking a little at what committees of interest are up to... it appears that Judiciary will come out with a divided report with one or two dissenting on what to do about any statute of limitations on filing for damages received for injuries incurred on a ski slope. It does appear a majority will favor a measure that will reduce the time limit to two years. Both Sen. Phillip Jackson and Rep. Karen Brown in Oxford County are pushing for the bill which they say would have a major impact on the ski industry in Maine from Camden Snow Bowl to Sugarloaf. Insurance premiums should be reduced or at least stay about the same for liability coverage and thus keep the cost of skiing from skyrocketing due to the higher insurance costs.

A bill which would mandate out-of-state advertisers selling to Maine residents to register with the Department of Taxation and submit names of Mainers buying their products (so that they would be billed the sales or use tax on the item) has been sent back to the Taxation Committee because most Senators said they didn't understand the bill, is expected to be heavily lobbied by the Department of Taxation. Most hope the bill will die in committee. The House last week passed the bill by a large margin.

Representatives Bonnie Post and Skip Greenlaw say they are hoping the Marine Resources Committee will soon report out the clam conservation bill that received a full and loud hearing in that committee.

Both say they expect a favorable recommendation which would include some sort of municipality mandate to allow non-residents to dig. Talk currently is in the vein of setting a specific number of non-resident licenses on a first come, first serve basis.

The same committee will put into another bill a two inch clam limit, similar to the one repealed several years ago. Conservationists say this would be a good measure and little opposition appeared at the public hearing on clamming. Bonnie Post says she wants more information from wardens and researchers before she decides her position, however.

At this date it's still too early to predict what will happen with the rest of the Marine Resources statutes. The effort to rewrite those laws continues and committee members are still noncommittal.

Those growing Christmas trees and making wreaths for the holidays are still being talked about. Rep. Tom Perkins' bill to eliminate the fee for those who gather wreath brush is still in committee and he says it looks as though the committee will amend the bill to allow shippers to pay the fee and then give duplicates to their employees. Not a big issue here, but one that has lawmakers from Christmas green areas all talking about getting the "little old ladies back home" out from under the existing fees.

STONEHAM RESCUE SERVICE IS GETTING OFF GROUND

The Stoneham Rescue Service is finally getting off the ground. According to President Bill Dunton, despite complications, "The people in this area want a Rescue Service and we're going to give them one, one way or another."

Beginning Jan. 26, the Vice-President, Miss Brenda Lyon, will teach a Red Cross First Aid course on Thursday evenings at 7 o'clock in the cafeteria at Evergreen Valley. The class is open to the general public and will entail approximately 54 hours of instruction, with all who complete the course receiving a Red Cross Advanced First Aid card. Anyone wishing to sign up may do so at any of the first three classes.

The Service hopes to be able to raise money for an ambulance. Anyone desiring more information or wishing to make a tax free donation may write to Stoneham Rescue Service, P. O. Box 42, East Stoneham, Maine 04231 or call Lawrence Dammun at 938-2269 or Lester Horton in Lovell at 826-6461.

U. OF M. PUBLISHES SERIES OF FARMERS NEWSLETTERS

The University of Maine at Orono's Cooperative Extension Service has published a series of eight messages in newsletter style aimed at assisting Maine farmers to better handle problems and avoid pitfalls in farm management.

Entitled "Hired Labor on Maine Farms," the series has been authored by CES personnel. The first message, on farm labor relations, recommends that both the farm employer and his hired help have a clear understanding of the operation's goals. One goal of a satisfactory employer-employee relationship is to have an integrated organization that is of mutual benefit. Each must feel that his family and personal needs are being met, the farm labor relations message points out.

Other messages in the series are concerned with fair labor standards, Workmen's Compensation, social security and tax regulations affecting farm labor, new jobs tax credit, Occupational and Safety Health Act regulations for Maine farmers, labor incentives for dairy farmers and part-time labor. The series was designed primarily for dairy farmers but is readily adaptable for any farming discipline.

The messages, printed at the UMO Printing Office, are available at each county Extension office and will be used by Extension specialists at statewide meetings with Maine farmers.

Our field trip for the week will be sliding at Sunday River Ski Area if sickness and cold weather hold off.

Our next scheduled coffee meeting will be Feb. 7. These coffees give the mothers an opportunity to meet each other socially and plan fund raising activities.

Our Star of the Week is Kim Sprague, daughter of Orrin and Sharon Sprague, of East Bethel. Volunteer for this week has been Lisa Patrick.

EMPLOYEES SHOULD RECEIVE W-2'S BY END OF MONTH

Employers have until Tuesday, Jan. 31, 1978, to provide their employees with completed W-2 Forms for 1977. J. J. Jennings, Director of the Augusta Internal Revenue Service District has stated:

Unless the Forms are received by that date, employees will have to wait until February or later to file their tax returns, possibly missing out on the quick refunds available to early filers. If a W-2 is not received by Jan. 31, an employee should contact the employer concerned.

If the W-2 is not issued by Feb. 15, the employee should then contact a local IRS office. Employees who do not receive all of their W-2's in time to file should report all of their income and attach a statement explaining tax computations for which W-2's are missing.

Additional information on the proper handling of W-2 Forms is available in the IRS Publication 15, "Circular E—Employer's Tax Guide," obtained from IRS District Offices.

SAFETY COMMITTEE ASKS FOR CAUTION AT R. R. CROSSINGS

The Maine Highway Safety Committee has called upon Maine drivers to exercise additional caution when approaching railroad crossings. In issuing the call for increased awareness at grade crossings, Lee Allen, committee chairman, issued the following statement:

"The possibility of car-train collision is a horrifying thing to consider, and yet railroad officials tell us that train crews in Maine are reporting an increased number of 'near-misses' with vehicles at grade crossings. The Maine Highway Safety Committee feels that the motoring public should remember that a train cannot stop as quickly as a car or truck. In fact, railroad figures indicate that it can take nearly a mile to stop a freight train once the engineer sees a dangerous situation developing. Many people are apparently unaware or unmindful of that fact and continuously risk serious injury or death in trying to beat trains to railroad crossings.

While we refer to the flashing lights and lighted gates at various crossings as protective devices, they are really only warning implements. The responsibility for preventing vehicle-train collision rests with the motorist. Winter is traditionally the worst time of year for car-train accidents because of a number of seasonal factors. Slippery conditions, fogged or snow-blocked windows and high snowbanks are all contributing factors. Because there is rarely such a thing as a 'minor' vehicle-train collision, I would urge all Maine drivers to exercise extra caution at grade crossings. Hopefully, if all Maine drivers make a concerted effort to improve their driving in the areas near crossings, we can eliminate some of the collisions which traditionally become worse during the winter months."
